

THE GLOBAL HEALTH SECURITY QUARTERLY OF JHPIEGO DRC

WHAT WE HAVE BEEN WORKING ON

RAPID RESPONSE TEAM TRAINING GUIDEBOOK

This toolkit will be used as a teaching aid for all RRT trainings that will be organized throughout the country.

RRT SOP DEVELOPMENT

It is under the collaboration of several stakeholders in global health security in DRC that this document was developed. This document will facilitate and guide the tracking of actions undertaken periodically in the country.

MULTI-SECTOR NATIONAL PLAN

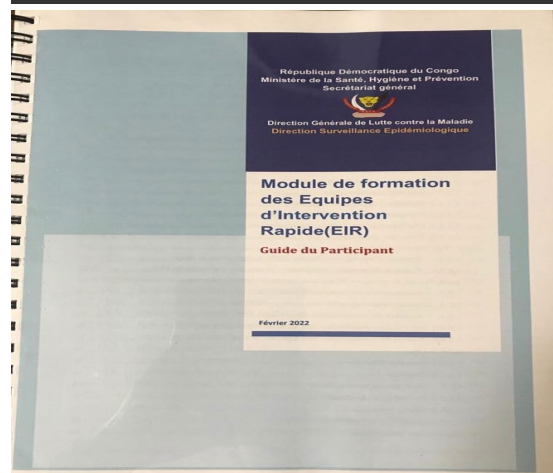

The multi-sector national plan is a standard and operational document that guides the stakeholders involved in One Health throughout the year with key strategies and approaches. This plan includes activities and actions to be undertaken according to specific objectives oriented towards health for all.

RESPONSE PLAN AGAINST THE 14TH WAVE OF EBOLA IN DRC

The mission of this meeting was to develop a strategic and operational note adapted to the context in order to respond in an effective way to

ESTABLISHMENT OF RAPID RESPONSE TEAMS FOR DISEASE CONTROL IN THE DRC

DEVELOPMENT OF AN RRT TRAINING PACKAGE

Jhpiego supported in close coordination with CDC the completion of the Rapid Response Team Training Package to be used as a pedagogical support for all RRT trainings to be organized throughout the country.

The workshop to develop SOPs for rapid response teams at the national level took place in Kisantu from May 2 to 6 and was attended by about 20 experts from the Ministry of Health

CREATION OF THE NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF PUBLIC HEALTH IN THE DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF THE CONGO

ANALYSIS WORKSHOP ON THE INSPECTION REGULATIONS

A proposal for a ministerial order for the creation of the national institute of public health was reviewed by the Ministry of Health, Hygiene and Prevention from June 23 to 24 2022. It is now in advanced stage of negotiations for the creation of this institute that will put in place experts in the management and transformation of public health actions at the intermediate and peripheral levels. It will also contribute to the realization of universal health coverage. This initiative is being led by the DRC General Directorate for Disease Control (DGLM) with support from Jhpiego.

this new outbreak of the Ebola virus in the North-Eastern part of the DRC.

The experts will have acquired appropriate skills and behaviors that can not only promote community involvement in the fight, but also ownership for a rapid and effective response to the Ebola Virus outbreak. This document had the collaboration of Jhpiego and other technical partners in collaboration with the Ministry of Public Health, Hygiene and Prevention through the Direction of Disease Control.

HEALTH EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT TECHNICAL WORKING GROUP

Based on a monthly schedule, Ministry of Health, Hygiene and Prevention experts in partnership with key stakeholders meet to discuss issues related to improving the quality of health emergency response in the DRC, health system performance and working tools for providers and other rapid response units.

Jhpiego is an essential part of this group and is a co-facilitator.

ROADMAP ON THE IMPACT OF CLIMATE CHANGE AND HEALTH IN THE ONE HEALTH AGENDA

It is under the lead of the Direction of Disease Control, WHO and Jhpiego that the public health stakeholders in partnership with the Presidency, Ministries, CDC, UNDP, UNICEF, DNDi that this climate change and health document has been developed including the commitments made at COP 26 with the main steps and the expected results over the next 8 years.

It will allow the DRC to have the required resources to effectively contribute to the achievement of universal health coverage and its sustainability by 2030.

and technical and financial partners such as WHO, CDC, Jhpiego, Africa CDC, and AFENET. The facilitation for this workshop was provided by CDC experts from Atlanta.

The SOP adaptation workshop for the rapid response teams at the provincial level was held in Matadi in the province of Central Kongo from May 9 to 13. Six managers from the Provincial Health Division of Central Kongo took part in the workshop along with experts from the Ministry of Public Health who came from Kinshasa and experts from the ministry, technical and financial partners, including WHO, CDC, Africa CDC, AFENET and Jhpiego. The facilitation was provided by Ministry of Health experts from Kinshasa and CDC experts from Atlanta.